

Based upon the latest guidance from the health department regarding the current covid situation, the township has once again begun enforcing the recommended social distancing guidelines.